Dear Sir/Madam,

I recently graduated from the Faculty of Agriculture, University of Ruhuna. It was a four year special degree and basically it consisted with Agriculture Economics, Agri engineering, Crop Science, Food Science, Soil Science, Agri Biology and Computer awareness modules. In my final year, I have specialized in Soil Science and conducted my research project successfully in the National Cinnamon Research and Training Center, Sri Lanka.

As a person who is holding a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture, I hereby wish to express my interest for a job as a job seeker. My outgoing personality, fresh theoretical knowledge on agriculture, and the outstanding experiences in relation to Team working, Hardworking, Holding responsibilities, that I have collected in my academic life have made me stronger to achieve any kind of organization goals.

My recently completed education make me a strong candidate for a suitable position in a suitable organization where I can utilize my knowledge, skills, and my experiences for the growth of the organization. Ultimately, I am extremely reliable, and adaptable and dynamic person who have ability to work effectively with staff at different levels of the organization.

Thank you for taking time to look in to a job seeker. I'm looking forward to hear from you in near future.

Yours sincerely,

L.W.Gamage
